

MOWA Choctaw Sustainable Cultural Heritage
Ambassador Program
Cultural Skills and/or Tribal History Knowledge
Application for Instructors

The Tribal Ambassador Program is part of an effort to preserve the tribe's culture and history. Through a grant-funded program, tribal members will be given the opportunity to acquire traditional and historical knowledge that will not only contribute to sustaining this knowledge, but in becoming future tribal ambassadors who will go on to represent the MOWA Choctaw Tribe in a variety of roles. Do you know a lot about the tribe's history and geography? Do you have a skill, such as woodworking, tanning hides, gardening, beadwork, etc., that you would be willing to share? Please consider becoming part of this program and share your knowledge and skills.
